WHAT IS CLAIMED IS:

1. A toy gun, comprising a top gun-body and a bottom gun-body, in which a protrusion provided with a first combining hole is formed at a rear end of said top gun-body, and a second combining hole is formed at a rear end of said bottom gun-body, and characterized in that a plurality of protrusions are arranged on the rear end's circumference of said top gun-body for inserting and fastening to a rear end's inner edge of said bottom gun-body to thereby enhance the combination stability of said top and said bottom gun-body.